

Products Services Developer Resources Contact STS About STS

Viewing Data in Custom Property Sets

> I've been experimenting with CustomPropertySets and have yet to ever > have any data returned from the CustomProperties command?

(snip)

> Even using the function David Bovill posted in apr 2001 (thanks) I > am unable to ever get / see data returned from the CustomProperties > command?
>
> <http://www.mail-archive.com/metacard@lists.runrev.com/msg02219.html>
> <http://www.mail-archive.com/metacard@lists.runrev.com/msg02021.html>
>
> function getStoredArray setName, someObject > set the customPropertySet of someObject to setName > put the customProperties of someObject into someArray > set the customPropertySet of someObject to empty > return someArray > end getStoredArray
>
> Is it because the data is being put into an array that can't be > displayed?

Yes. Use the `combine` command to convert an array to a string:

```
combine someArray with cr
put someArray
```

Richard Gaskin
Fourth World Media Corporation
Custom Software and Web Development for All Major Platforms
Developer of WebMerge 2.0: Publish any Database on Any Site

Ambassador@FourthWorld.com <http://www.FourthWorld.com>
Tel: 323-225-3717 AIM: FourthWorldInc

Posted on 3/11/03 to the MetaCard list

Print this tip

News and Rumors Products Services Developer Resources Contact STS About STS

Copyright ©1997-2013 Sons of Thunder Software, Inc. All rights reserved.
Send all comments to webmaster@sonsofthunder.com.